Charleston-buying, 3-16 premium; selling, 14 premium." The Chicago Tribune, of Monday, had the following: "The clearings of the Chicago banks so far in June show a heavy March. decline in transactions. The clearings of week before last were $21,179,021; last week's were $17,822,000. The business of the week ending June 9th was 9 3 10 per cent. less than that of the corresponding week of last year, and that of last week exhibits a similar decrease of nearly 25 per cent. This is not an encouraging state of affairs." The Chicago "Seldom, if ever, have we seen the summer ushered in on a duller or more unsatisfactory money market than exists at present. Business at the banks is utterly spiritless, and judging from indications, they are not earning ex-penses, much less dividends. A prominent banker remarked to-day that he never before saw the time when there was so little demand for money from those who had anything to give for it. If, however, money plenty and cheap, credit is not, but on the contrary it is dear; in other words, banks are more than usually cautious in regard to the character of the paper and securities taken. This cantion is perfectly natural, as the chanmade profitable to the investor are so few The movement at the ports y

The telegrams were less favorable from Liverpool yesterday, with a decline. New York, however, recovered the 1-16c lost the lay before, while New Orleans retained the former quotation. In our market there was again a good demand, which kept prices firm at existing quotations, but the offerings were by no means commensurate with the ts of buyers, and the market closed firm. The New York Bulletin, of Monday, reports.

"For spots the market has been a quiet one, the sales covering merely the ordinary invoices to be found going out on domestic account. On quotations the former range of count. On quotations the former range of the preserved as fairly representing and powdered, 13%c; granulated, and powdered, 13%c; granulated, figures is preserved as fairly representing values, with the tone called steady. As a rule, however, holders' views are stronger than this, and not many can be found who will offer with freedom or readily accept the stronger with the stronger of the stro currently named rates. Stocks became more valuable for speculative use as the cotton year draws to a close, and there is a more hopeful feeling in regard to the foreign outlet. Shippers for a day or two have in a coarse, sacks, $1 25@1 30; Liverpool, fine, quiet way been manifesting greater interest. sacks, $150. tor a considerable quantity of cotton. For future delivery the struggle continues sharp between the opposing interests, but to-day the 'bears' have had rather the greatest advantage, which they gained through the report on crops from the a ricultural bureau. This, showing an increase of acreage, seems to demoralize a few of the 'longs,' who commenced unloading, and, finding this disposition current, the 'bears' forced matters until they gained a shrinkage of 13@15 points. At this, however, the offerings became small and orders increased, which created sufficient demand to form a basis for reaction, and as a more careful study of the bureau report seems to show that the backward condition of the plant neutralized the additional space for a considerable quantity of cotton. For futhe plant neutralized the additional space planted, there was enough buoyancy to re-cover about 8 points. Subsequently, however, rates went back 5@6 points again and the close was barely steady at 10@11c points under last evening."

LAND TITLES, V. B. WADDELL,

Attorney-at-Law, General Land Agent, A ND Proprieter of the Abstract of Land Titles in Tunica county, Mississippi. Look to your land titles. I have now complete, a perfect Abstract of Titles of all lands in Tunica county, Miss., as it was before portions of the same were taken for Tate and Quitman counties. This Abstract shows that there are very few perfect titles in Tunica county. Many of them are utterly defective, and there are scarcely any that are not clouded by tax-titles. In some instances I find that valuable plantations, about the titles of which the holders have entertained no doubt, are held by titles that would avail nothing before a court, either in prosecuting or defending a suit in ejectment. The defects in these titles may generally be cured if they are ascertained
